If such condition is not cured to the satisfaction of the DKPH after that time, then the cancellation of the contract may be executed.
20. GIFTS: Please note that a "gift to a public servant" is a Class A misdemeanor offense if the recipient is a government employee who exercises some influences in the purchasing process of the governmental body. This would certainly apply to anyone who helps establish specifications or is involved in product selection or directs a purchase.
21. INTERLOCAL AGREEMENTS, PURCHASING COOPERATIVES: The DKPH reserves the right to utilize other DKPH contracts, State of Georgia contracts, contracts awarded by other Governmental Agencies, other Boards, or cooperative agreements in lieu of any offer received, or award made as a result of this proposal, if it is in the DKPH's best interest to do so.

28. AWARD: It is the intention of the DKPH to establish a list of as many offerors as successfully respond to this RFQ. DKPH does not guarantee any quantities or dollar amounts relating to this proposal, as items and/or services will be purchased on an “as needed” basis with available funding. Purchases will be based upon the DKPH’s needs throughout the period covered by this proposal.
29. NOTIFICATON OF AWARD: All vendors properly responding on time to this proposal with all of the required documents complete, will be considered for award. The DKPH may elect to issue subsequent proposals and approve additional vendors for the same or similar items/services during the agreement period, if it is determined to be in the best interest of the DKPH.

34. INTERPRETATION PAROLE EVIDENCE: This writing is intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement and is intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of their agreement. No course of prior dealings between the parties and no usage of the trade shall be relevant to supplementing or explaining any term used in this agreement. Acceptance or acquiescence in a course of performance rendered under this agreement shall not be relevant to determine the meaning of this agreement even though the accepting or acquiescing party has knowledge of the performance and opportunity for objection. 36. RIGHT TO ASSURANCE: Whenever one party to this contract in good faith has reason to question the other party's intent to perform, he/she may demand that the other party give written assurance of his/her business intent to perform. In the event that a demand is made, and no assurance is given within five (5) days, the demanding party may treat this failure as an anticipatory repudiation of the contract.
37. DISCLOSURES: By signing this proposal, a vendor affirms that he/she has not given, offered to give, nor intends to give at any time hereafter any economic opportunity, future employment, gift, loan, gratuity, special discount, trip, favor, or service to a public servant in connection with the proposal submitted. 40. COMPETITIVE PROCUREMENT: This RFQ is part of a competitive procurement process which helps to serve the DKPH's best interest. It also provides vendors with a fair opportunity for their products to be considered. The process of competitive negotiation being used in this case shall not be confused with the different process of competitive sealed bidding. The latter process is usually used where the goods or services being procured can be described precisely and price is generally the determinative factor, although it may be, and the DKPH has the flexibility it needs to negotiate with vendors to arrive at a mutually agreeable relationship.
41. LENGTH OF CONTRACT: All responses to the RFQ shall be valid for the date of DKPH approval with the possibility of four (4) additional annual renewals between the DKPH and the Vendor.

If the Offeror fails to make such request, no excuse will thereafter be entertained for failure to carry out the work in a satisfactory manner. DKPH is not responsible for any costs incurred by the vendor for the preparation or distribution of this bid. As the work of the contractor progresses, advice and information on matters covered by the contract shall be made available by the contractor to the DKPH throughout the contract period.
53. OWNERSHIP OF MATERIALS. The contractor shall agree and understand that all reports and material developed or acquired by the contractor as a direct requirement specified in the contract shall become the property of the DKPH. The contractor further agrees that all data, technical information, and reports developed by contractor or any person engaged in the contracted work are the property of the DKPH and shall not be disclosed to others at any time or used for any other purpose other than for the sole benefit of the DKPH, and that upon termination of the contract, or at any other time the DKPH requests, the contractor or any other person involved in the contracted work will transmit to the DKPH any written, printed, or other materials embodying such confidential information, including all copies and excerpts thereof, given to, prepared by or for the contractor, or any other person involved in the contracted work. It is further understood and agreed that this obligation to keep such information confidential shall continue at all times beyond the completion of the contracted work.
